About the trainer....

Steve Bader has been involved in dog training for over 6 years. In addition to general obedience and puppy training, he has experience with agility, rally, tracking and service dog training. Steve is passionate about considering the dog's perspective in training and reinforcing the idea that Puppy Classes aren't just about teaching the puppies....but also the owners! He enjoys utilizing a variety of training techniques and understands the unique nature of each breed, puppy and family.

This class will be kept small to ensure one on one attention and maximum benefit to the participants – so sign up early! To sign up, please fill out registration paperwork at All about PetCare.
